2. "The State Planning Board is headed by Muharem FUKA; the deputy chairman is Pupo Suti.

This board is charged with drafting economic plans for Albania. The Board receives individual plans proposed by the various ministries and memoranda on their respective requirements for the coming plan-year. On the basis of this material the Board prepares a draft-plan. This is first submitted to the Praesidium and then to the Politbureau of the CP for approval and released finally to the Government for parliamentary approval. After the plan has been passed by the latter body, it is returned to the Board for implementation.
